June 16 Moon Walk Cancelled

(Laramie, WY - June 14, 2011) – The June 16 Moonwalk beginning near the Green Rock Trailhead is cancelled, due to the amount of snow still on the ground. This is an unusual year, with snow depths still at March or April levels in many locations on the Medicine Bow National Forest. The event may be rescheduled at a later date. Four Moon Walks are tentatively planned for this summer on full moon nights. Please visit <http://fs.usda.gov/mbr> for more information about your national forests and grasslands.
